Newsletter September 2025

Hello Everyone! It seems like only last week I was signing off from the Newsletter for summer and here we are heading for September. I trust you have enjoyed this exceptionally hot weather. You may be wondering what cowboy boots, and a Stetson have to do with our Newsletter but before your curiosity causes you to fast forward do take a look at the photographs below featuring our lovely hall as maybe you've never seen it before – all dressed up for private functions!

You see, completely transformed from what you might be used to- on Table Tennis Night or Wednesday Morning Pilates!

Please note no transformation can be permanent and if planning a more ambitious project you must first consult the Village Hall Committee.

So if you are planning a private function do consider the hall, more information is available on the website

WHAT ABOUT OCTOBER?

October 17th Wine Tasting

In October, we will be having our own “Oktoberfest” here in Ecchinswell - but rather than beer, we will be sampling some fabulous wines!

Tom Doran, from the Doran Family Vineyard, will be visiting to tell us all about his wines - there will be a range of red, rose and white to try.

Tom tells us that the emphasis is on having fun, trying wine, and learning a little about wine making in the process. “We try each wine with a wine glass – none of this sip and spit nonsense!”

To accompany the wines there will be a variety of delicious cheeses to tempt you from Barry at the Hampshire Deli – (some of you may have already visited the Deli, or seen the signs to it on the A399). It will be a good opportunity to place an early order for your Christmas wine and cheeses!

Do make a note of the date in your diary, tickets will go on sale in early October.

NEWS FROM THE VILLAGE HALL COMMITTEE

Over the summer there have been some changes to the Committee.

Farewell to Allan Unnuk

We couldn't let Allan leave his office as Treasurer of the Village Hall Committee without marking the occasion!

Allan first joined the Hall Committee in the early 1990's, first on the entertainments team, where he produced the early (hand-delivered!) newsletters and initiated the string of Ecchinswell pantomimes, then as Treasurer during the re-building of the Hall in 1996, before taking on that role again since 2020.

We'd like to convey our hearty thanks to Allan, we are sorry that he is going, his will be a difficult act to follow. On behalf of the Village Hall Committee our grateful thanks!

Welcome to Simon and Ben

Simon Willson has been working alongside Allan for the last few months and has now taken over the role of Treasurer. Simon is a construction project manager and we hear he has a good head for figures.....

Ben Grant-Jones has also joined the committee as a general member and his background in electrical engineering is already coming in useful!

A big welcome to Simon and Ben!
